

OVERVIEW

I'm a creative passionate about exploring how emerging technology, storytelling and product can come together to create new experiences.

I work across digital marketing, brand + product development, paid ads, SEO, GEO, SEM, social, web, mobile + UX/UI, Design, E-commerce, market research, consumer + trend insights, and commercial strategy.

Basically... creative brain + data brain. I like finding what makes people click, care, buy and come back.

I've delivered 93.4% revenue growth and 76% lower Google Ads CPA's, working with brands such as NEXT, Selfridges, TriMas, Hertfordshire Council and others to create campaigns, products and experiences that convert.

EXPERIENCE

Stearling Reinstatement | Marketing Manager

Developed and launched 3 target market specific websites, optimising UX, Content funnels, front-end & back-end SEO and multiple Google Ads Campaigns. Reduced CPA by 87.1% and increased high-ticket conversions from 3 to 32 in one month.

Hertfordshire Council | Supervisor

Self-initiated a digital compliance platform, supervisor dashboard, and AI-assisted menu redesign for North Hertfordshire Council, contributing to +93.5% YoY revenue growth, managing 3 retail sites and developed an efficient web-based data capture system.

XTC Clothing | Founder

Built a fashion brand from concept to launch, managing product development, international sourcing, e-commerce, paid media, influencer marketing, creative direction, content production and brand strategy.

Next | Buying & Merchandising Intern

Developed an award-winning A/W outerwear collection, securing an internship. Conducted competitor analysis, trend research and range building to support commercial product decisions.

TriMas | Marketing Intern

Supported global marketing across multiple divisions, delivering geo-specific digital and physical marketing collateral across 12 countries.

Selfridges | Merchandising

Developed a trend-led visual merchandising concept using social and macroeconomic insights, implemented at the Bullring Selfridges store for Summer of Sounds.

Incognito Labs | UX & Logic App Designer

Led UX/UI and product development, applying market research, AI models and consumer insights to create commercially driven apps and conversion-focused user journeys.

MakeProgress | Event Marketing Manager

Developed event branding and social strategy, running Meta lead-generation campaigns, managing clients and driving lead conversion, client acquisition and onboarding.
